Florida School Leader Assessment (FSLA)

A Multidimensional Leadership Assessment

4 Domains - 10 Proficiency Areas - 45 Indicators

A summative performance level is based 50% on Student Growth Measures (SGM) that conform to the requirements of s. 1012.34, F.S., and 50% on a Leadership Practice Score. In the Florida State Model, the Leadership Practice Score is obtained from two metrics:

- Florida School Leader Assessment (FSLA)
- Deliberate Practice Score

The school leader’s FSLA Score is combined with a Deliberate Practice Score to generate a Leadership Practice Score. The tables below list the school leader performance proficiencies addressed in the four domains of the FSLA and the Deliberate Practice Metric.

Research on Marzano’s evaluation system: The Marzano School Leader Evaluation Model is based on in-depth research and an extensive review of contemporary literature in school administrator leadership. To develop the model, Dr. Marzano and his associates first conducted a survey of the available research on school administrator competence. From this survey, specific school leader actions and behaviors were identified that, historically, have had a relationship with student achievement. Four primary documents were used in the review of literature:

- (1) A study by the Wallace Foundation, Investigating the Links to Improved Student Learning (Louis, Leithwood, Wahlstrom, and Anderson, 2010)
- (2) What Works in Oklahoma Schools, conducted for the Oklahoma State Department of Education (Marzano Research Laboratory, 2011)
- (3) Meta-analysis of School Leadership, published in School Leadership that Works (Marzano, Waters, and McNulty, 2005)
- (4) The Marzano Study of School Effectiveness, published in What Works in Schools (Marzano, 2003)

3. Other Indicators of Performance

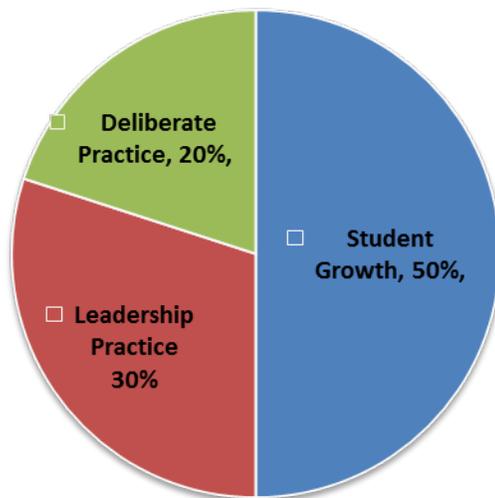

Directions:

The district shall provide:

- The additional performance indicators, if the district chooses to include such additional indicators pursuant to s. 1012.34(3)(a)4., F.S.;
- The percentage of the final evaluation that is based upon the additional indicators; and
- The scoring method, including how it is calculated and combined [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(d), F.A.C.].

Examples include the following:

- Deliberate Practice - the selection of indicators or practices, improvement on which is measured during an evaluation period
- Peer Reviews
- Objectively reliable survey information from students and parents based on teaching practices that are consistently associated with higher student achievement
- Individual Professional Leadership Plan
- Other indicators, as selected by the district

Additional Metric

Deliberate Practice: The leaders work on specific improvements in mastery of educational leadership is a separate metric and is combined with the FSLA Domain Scores to determine a summative leadership score. Choose one-three elements of Leadership Practice in section 2 to focus on.

Deliberate Practice Proficiency Area(s) and Target(s) for Growth selected by School Leader
Deliberate Practice Priorities: The leader identifies a short list of specific and measurable priority learning goals related to teaching, learning, or school leadership that target growth in the leader toward highly effective levels of personal mastery; takes actions to make discernible progress on those priority goals; monitors progress toward them, uses the monitoring data to make adjustments to practice, and provides measurable evidence of growth in personal mastery of the targeted priorities. The targets are “thin slices” of specific gains sought – not broad overviews or long term goals taking years to accomplish. Where FSLA indicator 4.5 addresses the leader’s involvement with professional learning focused on faculty needed and 10.2 addresses the leader’s pursuit of learning aligned with school needs, the Deliberate Practice targets are more specific and deeper learning related to teaching, learning, or school leadership. Growth target 1: An issue that addresses a school improvement need and approved by leader’s supervisor Growth target 2: An issue related to a knowledge base or skill set relevant to educational leaders and selected by the leader. This may be provided by the leader's review of district evaluation documents, online modules, mentor sessions, or face-to-face training where awareness of district processes and expectations are identified.
- At the orientation step, each school leader is expected to engage in personal reflection on the connection between his/her practice and the FPLS and the indicators in the district evaluation system. 7. District Self-Monitoring

Directions:

The district shall provide a description of its process for annually monitoring its evaluation system. The district monitoring shall determine, at a minimum, the following:

- Evaluators’ understanding of the proper use of evaluation criteria and procedures, including evaluator accuracy and inter-rater reliability; [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(j)1., F.A.C.]
- Evaluators provide necessary and timely feedback to employees being evaluated; [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(j)2., F.A.C.]
- Evaluators follow district policies and procedures in the implementation of evaluation system(s); [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(j)3., F.A.C.]
- Use of evaluation data to identify individual professional development; and [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(j)4., F.A.C.]
- Use of evaluation data to inform school and district improvement plans [Rule 6A-5.030(2)(j)5., F.A.C.]

Training and Reflection

The content of the district evaluation system informs those evaluated and those doing evaluations of the issues to address and the processes to use.

- Those being evaluated use these documents to guide self-reflection on practices that improve your work.
- Evaluators provide both recurring feedback to guide growth in proficiency in district priorities and provide summative performance ratings.
- Those who are both evaluated by this system and evaluate other with it will do both.

Things to know:

1. The Research Framework(s) on which the evaluation system is based. Each research framework is associated with particular approaches to instruction or leadership. The research aligned with the district framework(s) is a useful source of deeper understanding of how to implement strategies correctly and in appropriate circumstances. Evaluators can provide better feedback to sub-ordinates when they understand the research framework
2. Inter-rater reliability: Evaluators in the district should be able to provide sub-ordinates similar feedback and rating so that there is consistent use of the evaluation system across the district. This is promoted by training on the following:
 - a. The “look fors” – what knowledge, skills, and impacts are identified as system priorities by inclusion of indicators in the evaluation system.

- b. The Rubrics – how to distinguish proficient levels.
 - c. Rater reliability checks. Processes for verifying raters meet district expectations in using the rubrics.
3. Specific, Actionable, and Timely Feedback Processes: What evaluators observe does not promote improvement unless it is conveyed to employees as specific, actionable and timely manner. Training on how to do so is essential.
4. Conferences protocols and use of forms: Know what is required regarding meetings, conference procedures, use of forms, and records.
5. Processes and procedures for implementing the evaluation system
 - a. Evidence gathering: What sources are to be used?
 - b. Timeframes, record keeping
 - c. Scoring rules
6. Student Growth Measures: What are the districts requirements regarding use of student growth measures in the district’s evaluation system? District will use 1-3 years of data as available.
7. Sources of information about the evaluation system: Where can evaluators and employees access manuals, forms, documents etc. regarding the evaluation process.
8. Additional metrics: Training on any additional metrics use to supplement the practice portion of evaluation.

Please note:

- The evaluator is trained for the implementation of Instructional Leaders Evaluation System. The system information is provided in the Leadership Evaluation Plan.
- Evaluators will provide necessary and timely feedback to employees being evaluated as stated during data and curriculum meetings or formally three times per year.
- The evaluator will follow district policies and procedures in the implementation of evaluation system.
- Again, evaluation data is used to inform individual professional development, school, and district improvement plans during spring planning meetings.
